

Junior speaks: Chairman

Good morning and welcome. We are delighted to be here on this _____ (rainy/ sunny/ lovely) Autumn day. I would like to welcome you to our speech on equality and diversity. We are the .....speakers made up of St. Wilfrid’s pupils: our main speaker Trinity Crouch, Heidi McCulloch, who will give our vote of thanks, our reserve Iris Lyon and myself, David Ramsbottom. At Saint Wilfrid’s, all of Year 6 were given the opportunity to prepare and present a speech on something they felt passionate about. Trinity bowled us over, with her heart-felt speech about her visit to Manchester Pride and the colourful experiences she encountered at this festival. This made all of Year 6 think about how we treat others and how different we all are as individuals. Now, please allow me to hand over to Trinity who, as I’m sure you will agree, has the biggest challenge of the team, to deliver our speech and raise the question: What does it mean to be both equal and diverse? Trinity Main Speech	2 minutes David Ramsbottom
